

WASHINGTON -- Congressman John W. Olver announced today that he has cosponsored leg

The Northeast Dairy Compact, originally proposed by Olver, has been in effect since August of œAlthough it is vital that dairy farmers survive and prosper, this is also an issue of states' right œUntil we can ensure that the new federal dairy pricing system is balanced, continuation of the Recent events have clearly demonstrated the effects volatile milk prices can have on producer

###